Dear Dennis Crompton:

Mr. Park will be visiting London the 22nd, 23rd, 24th of February. He would very much like to give a lecture concerning his gallery StoreFront and the recent Kwangju Biennale where he was one of the curators. He is wondering if you would know of any lecture opportunities for him. A reasonable lecture fee would be appreciated.

Also he would very much like to discuss the Archigram exhibition and go over the exhibition material you intend to exhibit at StoreFront. If possible, an exhibition plan would be ideal to understand what installations projects you intend StoreFront to show.

Sincerely,

Ronald Gault

Dear Dennis,

I just received notice from T. Waxing Space that all exhibition material has arrived.

Storefront will be showing 8 drawings in their frames.

I am sorry to say that we were only able to obtain 4 T.V. monitors and 4 VCR'S for the videos.

Do you wish to have Kyong place and design the exhibition? Is there to be a text on the wall?

Please fax us the answer to these 2 questions. Also I understand you are arriving Saturday, please call.

Thank you, Ronald Gault

From: Ronald Gault,
Assistant to Kyong Park

Dear Dennis,

Kyong is leaving on Tues, Feb 10, for his travels to Spain, France and England. He is still hoping that you will have time to meet with him on Sunday evening, in London, on Feb. 22ND. His schedule is very full now because of crits and lectures at Bartlett on the 23rd and 24th. (He leaves on the 25th).
Please fax us here with a possible time^(after 5:00pm) and place to meet on Sunday.
And I in turn will inform Kyong in Europe. Also are you still

Planning to be in New York 20/2 on the 18th of Feb.? If you are you could bring your material that is needed for the production of Storefront's newsletter. Also, if you have time while in New York, maybe an hour or less, to meet with the editor, Tam Miller, and actually start the design and layout of the newsletter. If you do not have any time at all, please remember to give all the material needed for the newsletter to Kyong while he is in London.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Ronald Gault
